"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU"

Maples Repertory Theatre - Macon, MO
June 23, 2020 ~ $83/person

Join us for this Pulitzer-Prize winning, classic comedy by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart about a man from an uppity upbringing who becomes engaged to a woman from a good-natured but decidedly eccentric family. The heartwarming and hilarious show is a reminder of beauty all around us.

On the way to Macon we'll stop at Dutch Country General Store on Hwy. 2 west of Bloomfield to do some browsing and shopping. Lunch will be catered, hot buffet by Noland's Catering served in the theater extended lobby before the show. On the menu will be barbecue pork, marinated chicken breast, green beans, coleslaw, au gratin potatoes and chocolate cake!

This trip is getting close to being full so don't hesitate if you'd like to go. Call Jeff at 641-683-6423 to make reservations.

All heads are pointed port-side during our wildlife tour through the swamps of the lower Mobile-Tensaw Delta. A sunning alligator stirred all the attention.

The beach outside our Orange Beach hotel was a popular destination. Jim Hetzler (far left) is joined by his wife Diane, and Chuck & Betty Hindman.

Betty Messerschmitt, and Bill & Pam Alexander do some shell gathering on a windy day in Orange Beach.

Rex & Elizabeth Stewart and Dale Terrell catch a few rays and walk the beach.
